Dedication

Mr. Murray Alexander came to Webb six years ago and has taught physics and geometry ever since. As a young man, he attended a school in South Africa, of which his father was head-master. Later he studied physics and mathematics at St. Andrews University in Scotland, where he graduated with the highest honors in the class. As a meteorologist he entered the Air Ministry; and when the war broke out, he joined the Royal Air Force. He was rapidly promoted to squadron leader of long-range bombers, which gathered vital meteorological information in the Mid-Atlantic. Mr. Alexander was indisputably the best bad-weather aviator in the Royal Air Force. For his remarkable services he received the Air Force Cross, the highest honor a person can receive from the R.A.F. After the war, Mr. Alexander came to Cal. Tech. and received his masters degree in meteorology. As a result of graduating from Cal. Tech with straight A's he is a member of the Sigma Xi. Mr. Alexander is not only a scholar but also a well-respected friend, to whom we gladly dedicate El Espejo of 1953.

19 CHAFFEY J.V. 6

Webb played a good game against Chaffey considering that it was their first game. In the opening quarter Webb drove down the field, and Willis went over from the seven. Neff threw a thirty-yard pass to Adams in the end-zone. Willis intercepted a pass in the third quarter and went forty yards to score. Chaffey scored on an intercepted Thornbury pass in the final minutes.

Webb started off fast with two pass interceptions by Willis and Bell. Neff punched the ball over from the three and then passed to Adams for a score after the second interception. St. Bernadine began to roll in the second quarter, but they were stopped on the Webb two. There they scored a safety in the end-zone. In the last quarter Willis went over from the line, and that ended the game.

Webb easily defeated a very weak Pomona team. Webb used their second and third strings almost throughout the game. Meyer led the scoring with three touchdowns. In the home-coming tilt a high-spirited Webb team defeated their old rivals. Webb ran well around the ends and put on a good show for the visiting ladies. Black-Foxe could not score until the fourth quarter.

20 BIG BEAR 18

In the most exciting game of the year, Webb outfought Big Bear on the loser's field. Big Bear scored two touchdowns in the first three minutes on a punt recovery and a fumble. Webb came back, and Neff scored. Willis ran sixty yards for a touchdown, and the half ended. Big Bear scored in the third quarter, but in the last two minutes Adams blocked a punt, and Meyer ran it over.

13 CAL JR. 26

Webb started off well against Cal. Junior in the Helms Cup battle. Neff and Butterfield scored two touchdowns on line plunges. Key injuries, however, hindered Webb; and with aid of pass interception, Cal Junior overpowered Webb in the second half. Willis was hurt in the first half; and after that, Coach Perry did not have enough backs to win the game.

Hines makes yardage in Emerson game

The Bees started poorly this year, but improved greatly near the season's end, finishing third in the conference and gaining valuable experience. Handicapped by inexperience and fumbling, they lost their first three games—to Claremont, 7-13; to Upland, 12-19; and to Emerson, 13-26. But they won a really good game from Cal. Jr., 13-0, and finished with a hard-fought, 0-0 tie with Fremont. With Harris and Wilson as co-captains, Fleishhacker, Koenig, McCurdy, and Wertheim held up the line; Hines, Bryant, and Hall were the runners; and Wilson, Pringle, Hines took care of the passing. All-league selections were McBride, McCurdy, Wertheim, and Fleishhacker.

Intramurals

This year the intramural teams were not organized, but outdoor sports among Webbites have continued just the same. Because of the great class rivalry many of the would-be intramural games were played by classes and in P.E. periods. The highlight of the year was the Faculty-Spastic-Senior basketball game. The seniors, worn down by many late hours of hard study and by the use of tobacco, lost to the faculty five. In spite of their fatigued condition, the seniors put up a game fight.

Basketball

At the start of the season this year's team looked as if it might be one of the greatest in many years. For some reason, however, the boys were not able to work together; and as a result they lost the first six games. After losing to Chaffey J.V.'s for the second time, the team came to life and won eleven of the last thirteen games, dropping one to Citrus in an overtime period and the second to the powerful Laguna Beach team in the C.I.F. play-offs. All in all, the season was a success, and the team can truly be proud of itself.

B's

After getting off to a rather slow start this year, the B's finished in second place in the Mt. Baldy League. Among the private-school teams beaten by the B's were Cate and Thacher to the north. The success of the B's was mainly due to the excellent coaching of Jim Thynne, who has now been coaching them for two years. The starting five consisted of Bo Newman, Gary Ryan, David Firth, Tom Tuthill, and Sandy Kerr. Another important contribution to the team was Don Harris, who played excellent basketball throughout the season.

Tennis

In the spring one of the favorite sports on campus is tennis. About twenty students came out this year, since most places on the team were open. The outlook for the season was good, with many seniors and underclassmen making up the ladder. The highlight of the season was the playoff for the Sutphen Tennis Cup, which was won last year by Bill Adams. Matches were scheduled with Pomona, Covina, Colton, and Thacher; and the team came through ranking well with the Webb teams of past seasons.

Track

Webb has had a strong track team this year. It lacked a great deal in depth, but there was at least one powerful man in almost every event. The team is headed by captain Jim Willis in the sprints, Stragier in the 880, Firestone in the 440, Hjelm in the hurdles, Stoody in the broad-jump, and Martin and Butterfield in the shotput. There were meets with Cal. Junior, Fontana, Baldwin Park, St. Joseph, Cate, Midland, and Thacher.

The 1953 squad was one of the most powerful in years. Under the excellent coaching of Les Perry and Van Huppert, who plays minor league ball, the Gallic team had the advantage of learning all the minute tricks and skills that win ball games. Led by Sammy Neff, the team started off the year by beating the Pomona Frosh and Claremont. Toby Kirk and Tom Ussher have sparked the team with their fine pitching, and Wick Stephens has been one of the strong pillars of support with his quick and wise catching behind the plate. On the schedule were Cal. Junior, the Chaffey J.V.'s and teams of the Mt. Baldy League, but the season's highlight was the long-awaited game with the Thacher team from Ojai.

J. V.'s

The J.V.'s have had a successful season this year. Their achievements can be attributed to the wide participation of students in the sport. There were more players out this year than ever before in the history of the school. Also, the able coaching of Van Huppert has been a great asset to the team. The J.V.'s played approximately ten games this past year. The team developed many good players, who will give the varsity a big boost next year.

Honor Committee

STANDING: Mr. Howell Webb, Stephens, C. Baker, Stragier
SEATED: Firestone, Howser, Seiter

The student government at Webb consists of an Honor Committee. The Honor Committee, composed of four seniors and two juniors, is elected each year by the student body to uphold the Honor System and the traditions of the school; and they are the spokesmen and representatives of the students before the faculty. There is also an Honor-Committeeman in each dorm, and his job is to keep peace — if not always quiet — among the students therein. The chairman of the Honor Committee and president of the student body for the first term was Cleve Baker.

The Webb chapter of the California Scholarship Federation is composed of students who have attained scholastic averages of not less than two A's and two B's during a semester. As an extra privilege for members, Mr. Webb allows each boy in the chapter an additional week end at home for each semester he is a member. Although membership in the California Scholarship Federation is open only to high-school students, eighth graders also receive the extra week end if they achieve the necessary averages.

Blue and Gold

This year as in the past, the BLUE AND GOLD has been the Webb diary of events and activities. Editor Kol Nicolaysen increased the paper to eight pages, double the size of previous editions. Kol was assisted capably by Assistant Editor Jack Sutro, Business Manager Fred Warner, News Editor Chris Seiter, Faculty Advisor Mr. William Davis, and a number of others. Sandy Heath took care of the photographic work. These, along with the many contributors, helped to make the BLUE AND GOLD one of the outstanding papers in the school's history.

Firestone presents his arguments in a heated debate.

The Lincoln Debating Society had a very successful and active year. The society debated with other high schools and the faculty. Since the club stresses all forms of public speaking, there were many extemporaneous speeches and round-table discussions. The officers for the first semester were president, Jim Willis; vice-president, Cleve Baker; secretary, Dave Webb; sergeant at arms, Fritz Howser; and adviser, Mr. Price.

Riflemen

Led by Mr. Davis, the Webb School Junior Rifle Club has had an excellent year. The forty members of the club shoot four times a week for National Rifle Association rankings. The best sharpshooters are Loehr, shooting for Distinguished Rifleman; Costanten and Markert, aiming for Expert Rifleman; and Stone, working for his ninth bar. In their free time the club members have been replacing some of the old equipment, such as target frames and benches, and have greatly improved the shooting range.

Chess Club

Chess has aroused great interest this year at Webb. The student enthusiasts meet at Mr. Price's house and play several matches every Sunday afternoon. The regular members, many of whom are just learning the game, are Winter, Dwinnell, McCurdy, Willis, Webb, Barnard, Jayne, and Stallings. The club has had an unusually active year, and the game has promise of greater popularity in the years to come.

Dances

On the night of November 1, the Webb School social season of 1952-53 officially opened with the annual Football Dance. Dancing to the delightful music of the Blanchard Band, Webbites had a most enjoyable evening. On January 17 two buses rolled onto the Webb campus. They were filled with sixty Westlake School students, who came to Webb for their annual trade dance. Later on in the year, Webb was the guest of Westridge School at the well-planned and wonderful dance. The dance committee, with the irreplaceable aid of Mr. Hooper, wound up the season in a marvelous way with the free dance. It may be said that the 52-53 dance season can take its place among the best in the school's history.

Peccary Club

Beginning with the Bad-Lands trip this summer, the Peccary Club, under the inspiring leadership of Mr. Alf, has had one of its best years. In the most successful summer trip in their history the Peccary Men uncovered some fifteen skulls and the remains of a Sabre-Tooth Tiger, just to mention a few discoveries. From Barstow to South Dakota, from Death Valley to the Grand Canyon, the Peccary Club has sifted the sands for "documents of life" which now lie in the Webb Paleontological Museum. There, pieced together, they tell the story of life on the earth millions of years before Man.

Jazzmen

Last year a group of Webbites formed a jazz band, "The Jazzmen". Headed by Cleve Baker, they play Dixieland and modern jazz. All arrangements are worked out by ear. The members are Cleve Baker, piano; Dave Fleischhacker, guitar; Dick Stoker, trumpet; Larry Loehr, trumpet; Brooks Firestone, drums; and Bill Dwinnell, clarinet.

Quill and Scroll

The Will Rogers Chapter of the Quill and Scroll is the literary organization of the school. It is composed of the men who play a leading part in editing and producing the Blue and Gold and El Espejo, and its purpose is to improve the publication in all ways possible. The president for the first semester was Kol Nicolaysen, and for the second semester, Cleve Baker.

Block "W"

Because of the conscientiousness of its members, the Block W Club of 1952-53 enjoyed a prosperous year. Through the sale of Cokes at movies and major athletic events they have swelled the athletic fund, which makes it possible for Webb teams to have the finest in equipment. One of the big events for club members this year was the trip to the Colosseum to see the Pro-Bowl game.

Choir

This is Mr. Campbell's first year as director of the Choir. With the help of Miss Johansen, the organist. Mr. Campbell has done a fine job in organizing the students who were interested in choral work. The members of the choir practice Wednesday and Friday evenings for the Sunday service. The Webb Choir joined the Collegiate School for programs at Thanksgiving and Christmas. The Choir also blended their voices with those of the Westridge Glee Club on the evening of the Westridge Dance.

Orchestra

The Orchestra this year featured a wide variety of instruments. Under the direction of Mr. Pettley, the well-balanced ensemble played modern works, such as "Blue Tango" and "The Snow White Fantasy" and many classical selections. The Orchestra played in the chapel several selections for the Christmas program, during which concertmaster Alan Hjelm played an obbligato to "Cantique de Noel". Some members are rabid jazz enthusiasts and play in the jazz band and in jam sessions of their own. Their versatility in popular music is largely due to their training in the Orchestra.

Clarinets Mr. Davis, Dwinnell, and Roberts add harmony to the Orchestra in a practice session.

Camera Club

The Camera Club is an organization for those who are interested in taking, developing, and printing their own pictures. One can learn much in the Webb dark rooms, for they are well furnished with the necessary equipment for developing and enlarging films. The two photographic contests each year display the best work of the club. The first contest was won by Bill Wing. Many pictures in El Espejo are taken by Camera Club members. The officers for this year were Bill Bailey, president; Greg McCurdy, vice president; and Dave Webb, secretary.

Waiters

Mrs. Allen, the dietician, this year organized the waiters into an excellent staff who gave quick and efficient service in the dining room. Mrs. Allen taught the boys the proper way to wait on table, and they all readily responded to her instruction. The waiters were under the direction of Chris Seiter, their headwaiter. Alan Hjelm took care of the counter, and Fred Warner waited on the rest of the staff. Regular waiters were Thurston, Staude, Quon, Nash, Chandler, McBride, Stragier, Thornbury, and Butterfield.

Drama Club

This year the Drama Club departed from its custom of presenting the parents with a one-act play and vaudeville production, and put on a three-act play. A capacity crowd witnessed a splendid performance of Leo Brady's "Brother Orchid." The play was well-suited for the club's all-male membership. It told of a gangster who turned monk and gave his life destroying a gang which

Stamp Club

Every other Monday evening after study hall Mr. Hooper and the stamp enthusiasts meet to swap and discuss stamps. The latest stamp periodicals are read, and refreshments are served. Those who regularly attend these informal sessions are Elliott Trommald, Bob Kaufman, Ricky Whyte, Buzz Koerner, and Rawson Harmon. Not only does the Stamp Club afford entertainment to its members, but it also gives knowledge and information about the philatelic world, which is every day becoming larger. Stamp collecting is a fascinating hobby, for besides collecting stamps one collects knowledge.

Golf Club

The Golf Club, under the able leadership of Mr. Mellon, has had a successful first year. Its membership has grown to ten active golfers, who play three or four times a week at the local courses. Six of the seven team members played the Flintridge team, and the outcome of the battle was a strong victory for Webb. Don Harris and John Hines held top scores of six points each. Sandy Kerr scored five, and Jim Fleming and Murray Marsh picked up four each. Dan Chandler, who is in his first year of golf, made a fine showing by holding his opponent to a draw. Because of its great success this year the Golf Club can expect an increased membership next.

Ski Club

This year the Webb Ski Club had many enthusiastic members. Mount Baldy with the rope tow at Movie Slope and the new three-mile chair lift higher up the mountain became by unanimous approval the popular resort for the club. The snow conditions were comparatively poor, however; and the hickory addicts could not get their fill of the challenging slopes. Nevertheless, with the able assistance of Mr. Howell Webb, the skiers ventured to the lifts on top of Mount Baldy whenever the snow conditions were satisfactory.

Horseshoes

One of the most popular free-time activities is horseshoes. During the fall and spring afternoons the horseshoe pits by Mr. Vedder's house resound with the clanging of horseshoes against the stakes. The season's highlights are the spring and fall contests. The fall contest was won by Malcolm Roberts, a dark-horse competitor.

Music Club

The rebirth of the Music Club was again brought about by some enthusiastic members of the faculty. The concerts are recorded and consist of classical and "show" music. The members of this club meet every Sunday evening and make their group one of the most worth-while organizations of the school.

WHAT PRICE KENAUYAKSAIT?

1. For hundreds of years the coast of Baffin Island in Northern Canada has been an Eskimo home and hunting ground. The Baffin Island Eskimos were known throughout the North for their skill as seal hunters and fishermen. They lived on raw seal meat and raw fish. Their existence, while primitive, was a happy one.

2. Eight years ago the Canadian government set up a system of family allowance under which the Baffin Island Eskimos received $5 a month for each child—as did all other Canadians. These allowances, called "kenauyaksait" by the Eskimos, represented more money than most of them had ever seen at one time.

3. To the Eskimos, their new-found wealth meant they didn't have to hunt seals or catch fish any more. Most of them left their hunting and fishing grounds and moved in close to the trading posts where they received their monthly handouts and could buy the niceties of civilization.

4. The Eskimos' new life was soft and easy—for they had complete security. But because they no longer needed to provide for themselves they lost all vigor and ambition. As a result, the government is now trying to get them to move away from the trading posts and start producing or forfeit their allowances. But this is next to impossible to accomplish. For the Eskimos have grown to depend on their security so much that they have no desire to return to their former life of freedom and independence.

5. The important point of the story is this: enslavement by security isn't something that happens only to Eskimos. In fact, millions of people all over the world see nothing wrong with a welfare society. But welfare plans are like dope. The doses are small and pleasant at first, but they eventually enslave us. For that reason, we Americans must maintain our self-reliance, our productivity and our freedom. For these things, after all, are responsible for America's greatness.
